

Find savings on MRI and other complex imaging.

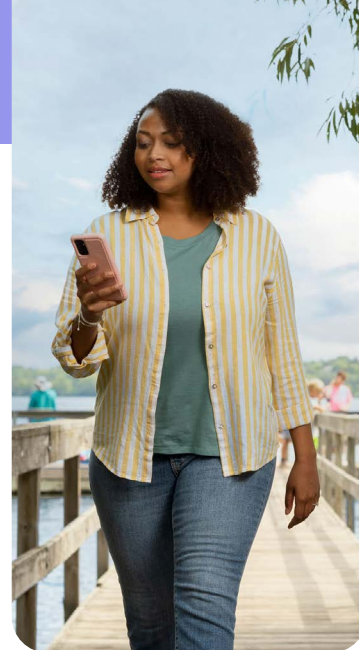

At home or in the doctor's office, search the Surest app to see prices for MRI or other complex imaging—and which providers or locations can help you save money—before you go.

Lower prices = high-value care

Surest uses a broad set of factors to inform its value-based copays (prices). When providers achieve better patient health outcomes, have lower rates of complications, and use resources more efficiently, they're evaluated as high value and assigned a lower copay.

Did you know complex imaging can range in price from $75 to $500, depending on where you go?

Use the Surest app or Benefits.Surest.com to shop providers and locations. Find opportunities to save before making an appointment.

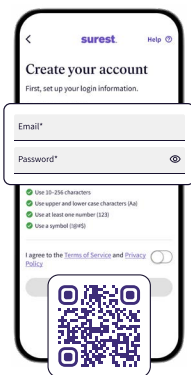

1

Download and set up your account.

Go to the Google Play Store or the Apple App Store and download the Surest app.

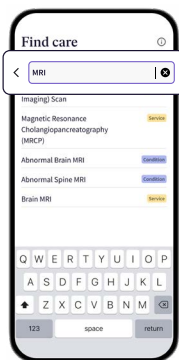

Once you have the app, follow the prompts to set up your Surest account.

2

Search.

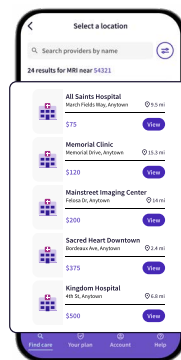

From your account home screen, type in the search bar what you are looking for like "MRI" and enter your location area. Select the service you need and then click on the "Find providers" button.

3

Compare.

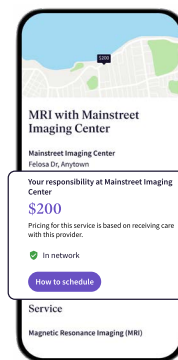

Results will show in-network providers and locations to consider. View price options on the map or scroll through the list to see provider names, locations, and prices. Click "View" to see what's included in the visit.

4

Schedule.

Once you select the provider you want, click the "How to schedule" button for contact information to schedule an appointment.
